Penfolds Magill Estate is a historical estate within metropolitan Adelaide. With world class dining, five unique spaces and access to some of the best wines in Australia, Penfolds Magill Estate is the ideal place for meetings, incentives and corporate entertaining.

The Estate boasts a number of unique locations to host events: taste the iconic Grange and enjoy pre-dinner drinks in the underground cellars, canapés on a personalised tour through the Estate, a private structured wine tasting and entrées amidst the racks of rare vintages in the Max Schubert Room, or the finest private dining room overlooking Adelaide.

Penfolds Magill Estate Venue Facilities

Penfolds Magill Estate Restaurant

A contemporary, timeless venue offering world class dining matched with world class wines. The restaurant enjoys sweeping vistas through its floor to ceiling glass walls, with views over the Shiraz vines and Adelaide. The interiors are stylish, yet understated with Italian marble floors, timber finishes and stylish unobtrusive furnishings teemed with subtle, quality tableware and set off with just the right ambient lighting.

The Max Schubert Cellar

The Max Schubert Cellar is filled with Penfolds wines. Named after the creator of Grange, it is an atmospheric setting - ideal for private tastings, dinners or an intimate cocktail reception. In the underground, temperature controlled cellar, your guests will be surrounded by beautifully stocked wine racks housing the Restaurant's magnificent collection of current, back and rare vintage Penfolds wines.
