Located in the heart of the world famous Hunter Valley, Lindemans Ben Ean is surrounded by charming vineyards and rolling hills - a unique and unforgettable setting for a wide range of meetings and events.

The original Lindemans Ben Ean historic site was extensively renovated in 1998 in preparation for its role as a major hospitality venue for the Sydney 2000 Olympics. Today, our estate provides a variety spaces, including function rooms with exceptional views, private tasting quarters, a spacious courtyard and an open, grassy meadow.

Lindemans Ben Ean Venue Facilities

Laraghy and Steven Rooms

Host your next conference or gala evening for up to 300 guests in the Laraghy and Steven rooms. With wooden floors throughout, the Laraghy and Steven rooms can be combined or split with a retractable wall. The Steven room is a convenient light-filled room with a small, private bar - perfect for smaller meetings or as a break out room. The larger Laraghy Room opens to the courtyard and suites larger conferences and dinners.

Courtyard

Our courtyard offers authentic and impressive historical surroundings with superb views of the Brokenback Mountain range. The indoor /outdoor design lends itself to outdoor food fairs, trade shows and alfresco dining for 300 or more guests. Sip sparkling wine under the stars or mingle at a cocktail reception, just prior to your gathering in the Laraghy or Steven rooms.
