With over a century and a half of winemaking experience, the House of Seppelt boasts a long history of tradition and a proven dedication to excellence. The historic winery in Great Western is famous for the renowned underground 'Drives'.

This amazing labyrinth of tunnels, the largest in the Southern Hemisphere, has been home to the celebrated sparkling wines from the House of Seppelt since 1868. Enjoy cocktails on the lawns, before descending into the drives for exclusive gala dinners, or simply explore the Drives and the historic 'Shaft House' on a guided tour. Specially selected menus designed to match our wines are available utilising seasonal local produce.

Seppelt Great Western Venue Facilities

1892 Cellar

Located in the heart of the estate, the 1892 Cellar is part of the original winery. This generous room is suitable for larger dinners or cocktail functions and provides an ideal ambience for large groups.

The Drives

Hidden beneath the surface of the Seppelt Great Western winery lies 3km of Heritage listed underground tunnels. These remnants of a bygone era were dug in the 1800's to store premium wines from our celebrated past. Today, grand dinners are held in this unique venue which is rich in both history and luxury.

Vine Lodge

Vine Lodge is a Victorian homestead built in the 1890s. With picturesque views across the lawns over the famous St Peter's Vineyard. Vine Lodge is a relaxing venue for small conferences or board meetings. One of the main features of this historic building is the ballroom with a beautifully restored 6-metre long table that is the perfect venue for private entertaining or meetings. The adjoining dining room can cater for morning or afternoon teas or lunches. Barbeques can be arranged in the private courtyard or surrounding gardens.
