T'Gallant, the birthplace of Australian Pinot Grigio, superbly exudes Italian style and taste. What helps make T'Gallant the coolest address on the Mornington Peninsula is the rustic ambiance of our La Baracca Trattoria restaurant, renowned for its laid back feel yet vibrant and edgy style.

This together with the village atmosphere of the Spuntino Bar, birthplace of Roman-styled pizzas on the Peninsula, continue to serve up pizza with a punch. Both boast a landscape of artichokes, olives and figs, and overlooking the vineyard valley beyond.

T'Gallant Venue Facilities

T'Gallant Cellar Door

Converted from the original 1950s apple shed, T'Gallant's Cellar Door is a rustic ambient area, perfect for pre-dinner drinks or private wine tastings. Located beside Chamber One, the Cellar Door is an ideal additional area for small group meetings, for morning or afternoon tea or post meeting drinks.

All capacities available on request

La Baracca Trattoria

La Baracca Trattoria ('the shed') is a mecca for wine and food lovers, serving simple, delicious farmhouse cuisine, using fresh, local produce. Extensive gardens surround the restaurant including figs, olives, artichokes, herbs and decorative and rare vegetables. La Baracca Trattoria is available for corporate lunches or exclusive dinners. Rustic wooden tables under the olive groves also offer a special place for warm summer dining.

All capacities available on request

Spuntino Bar

The casual Spuntino Bar allows for undercover informal dining with a private wine bar and a small ready made stage for presentations or live music. Perfect for larger group lunches or as a dance floor for guests dining in La Baracca Trattoria. Seating is also available outside under umbrellas in warmer weather.

All capacities available on request

Chamber One

A purpose built meeting place with fixed plasma screen, Chamber One is ideal for small group meetings or conferences. Chamber One is adjacent to the Spuntino Bar and T'Gallant's Cellar Door.
