The most famous façade in Hobart is the face of the Cascade Brewery. Nestled in the rolling hills of South Hobart, Cascade is the oldest brewery in Australia. Its historic buildings are set against the majestic backdrop of Mount Wellington and offer brewery tours, three acres of fine landscaped gardens, a café, Atrium bar and museum.

Join one of the daily tours to not only see some of Australia's best loved premium beers but taste them as well. Other options include functions, events, beer and gourmet food matching, garden tours or lunch and dinner packages.

Cascade Brewery Visitor Experiences

Brewery Tour

Step back through time and enter the brewer's domain within the walls of Australia's oldest brewery, Cascade. As well as learning the secrets to the Cascade beer making process, you'll take home some fascinating stories, brewing facts and tingled taste buds from your beer session.

Adults $22pp Children $10pp | 1.5 hours

Heritage Tour

Incorporating the history behind Australia's oldest Brewery, the tour takes you through our heritage-listed gardens and museum area as you travel the journey of the Cascade Brewery from its beginnings to present day and hear about the remarkable tales and characters from its famous past. The tour ends with tastings at our Atrium Bar.
