Located in the heart of the Barossa Valley is the Penfolds Barossa Valley Winery and Cellar Door. The original winemaker buildings dating back to 1911 still stand today and house the Penfolds tasting bar and private rooms. For most people, the Penfolds experience is about the bottle that they open. The lucky ones are those that have an opportunity to visit the authentic surrounds of the Estate.

Synonymous to the Penfolds brand, some fabulous experiences have been developed. All products are highly interactive and provide an opportunity for visitors to either meet with the experts, dine in the experts cottage or learn how to be an expert. Together with private tastings and luncheons at the nearby Kalimna Estate, Penfolds Barossa Valley offers clients an exceptionally unique experience.
