Uniquely located 15 minute's from the Adelaide city centre, visitors from all around the world flock to Penfolds to soak in the atmosphere and learn about the traditions, philosophy and labels which have made Penfolds Australia's most famous wine.

Four tour options mean that we can share the Penfolds experience with anyone, from the history buff to the epicurean expert. Be joined by our wine education team on a personalised and fun journey through the underground tunnels, winemaker's cottage, vintage cellars and the historic Still House before taste testing your way through the famous Penfolds wines.
