Beneath the Seppelt Great Western winery lie 'The Drives', a 3km labyrinth of Heritage listed underground tunnels waiting to be discovered. Purposely excavated by pioneering Australian goldminers in the 1800s, the vaults today are home to Seppelt wines dating back 150 years.

Visitors have a chance to explore the largest Drives in the Southern Hemisphere on a daily guided tour here at Seppelt. A 'must-see' experience on any Grampians itinerary, the home of Sparkling Shiraz.
